            Am                                    Dm          Am
I'm  a poor wayfaring stranger, traveling thru this world of woe
                                                      Dm     E7     Am
Yet there's no sickness, toil, or danger, In that bright world to which I go
            F                  C                    F                  E7
I'm going there to see my Father. I'm going there no more to roam
                 Am                          Dm  E7   Am
I'm only going over Jordan. I'm only going over home

I know dark clouds will gather 'round me, I know my path is ruff & steep
                                                     Dm     E7      Am
Yet golden fields lie just before me. Where weary eyes no more will weep
            F                  C                    F                  E7
I'm going there to see my brother. I'm going there no more to roam
                 Am                          Dm  E7   Am
I'm only going over Jordan. I'm only going over home
