

One Meatball

Am F E
The little man walked up and down (an' down)
Am
To find an eating place in town (in town)
Am F E
He read the menu through and through
Am G F E
To see what fifteen cents could do
(see- fifteen cents - do)

1st chorus

Am F E
One meat ball (one little meat ball)
Am F E
one meat ball (one little ball)
Am G F E
Well, he could afford but one meat ball
Am G F E
(He could afford but just one little ball)

Am F E
He told the waiter near at hand (at hand)
Am
A simple dinner he had planned (had planned)
Am F E
The guests were startled one and all
Am G F E
to hear That waiter loudly call (hear waiter loudly call)

2nd chorus

Am F E
One meat ball (one meat ball)
Am F E
One meat ball (one meat ball)
Am G F E
hey! This here gent wants one meat ball
(this----- one-----)

interlude

Am_{stop} F E Am_{stop} F E
One meatball. One meatball.
Am G F E
This here Gent wants one meatball.

Am F E
the little man felt ill at ease (at ease)

Am
and said some bread Sir if you please (pretty please)

Am F E
the waiters voice roared down the hall

Am G F E
you gets no bread with one meat ball

1st chorus

Am F E
One meat ball (one little meat ball)

Am F E
one meat ball (one little ball)

Am G F E
Well, he could afford but one meat ball

Am G F E
(He could afford but just one little ball)

Am F E
The Little man felt very bad (real bad)

Am
One meat ball was all he had (real sad)

Am F E
now in his dreams he hears that call

Am G F E
Ya gets no bread with one meat ball

2nd chorus

Am F E
One meat ball (one meat ball)

Am F E
One meat ball (one meat ball)

Am G F E
hey! This here gent wants one meat ball
(this----- one-----)

outro

Am_{stop} F E Am_{stop} F E
no bread, no bread,
Am G F E Am
you gets no bread with one meat ball.